

Saskatchewan Real Estate Commission

Reciprocity Information Materials Directive

The Saskatchewan Real Estate Commission (the “Commission”) is responsible for the regulation of Saskatchewan’s real estate industry. The Commission is mandated to protect consumers and to provide services that enhance and improve the industry and the business of industry members. The Commission is charged with the responsibility of registering all real estate and property management brokerages, brokers, branch managers and salespeople. To maintain high professional standards, the Commission ensures that all mandatory education requirements are met.

The information contained in The Real Estate Reciprocity Information Materials package is designed to facilitate the registration to trade in real estate in Saskatchewan through the reciprocity process. Please visit our website at www.srec.ca (Registrant Information > Reciprocity), regarding the reciprocity qualification process.

You should have previously received correspondence from the Commission confirming you qualify for reciprocity and which specified the allowable time-frame to complete the reciprocity process.

Once you have read and understood the contents of The Real Estate Reciprocity Information Materials, please sign and date the Declaration Statement and forward to the Commission office.

For inquiries related to the reciprocity process and/or the status of your application, please email info@srec.ca.
